KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION

So THE maudlin petitions that have been worked up by the thousands by the yellow press for the pardon of a Connecticut murderer have been consigned with out reading to the Governor's wastebasket. A wastebasket is a useful article in a Governor's as well as an editor's office.—Courier Journal.

Brutal and heartless as ever The "yellow press" forsoothe The yellow streak of the Courier Journal is wide and broad enough to cover thousands of square miles. A woman was lately convicted in Connecticut on the charge of killing a brutal husband who had made life a torture to her and two small children. Many women throughout the country, aided by that portion of the press that has not been brutalized by selfishness and greed, have been working up petitions asking the Governor to commute the death sentence. The Courier Journal never fails to get its flings in against any movement made by women of our country and never lets an occasion pass when it can by pen or cartoon hold up to ridicule those women and their sympathizers, who are making efforts to improve conditions thru' movements for the ballot or other means for the betterment of womankind. The C. J. has grown rich off our people and has become arrogant and has reached the conclusion it can treat the people just as it pleases. It has claimed to be a friend to the mountains and it has been just so long as that paper could use this portion of the state for its own selfish purposes. It indicated its interest and friendship for us a short time since when it jumped on our movement for a government appropriation to build a highway from Cumberland Gap to Crab Orchard, and to show its consistency and yellowness turned about and advocated and endorsed a proposition of having the government set aside some hundred thousands of dollars to build a "sea wall" to keep the Ohio river out of a lowland portion of their city.

The Courier Journal "waste basket" no doubt has swallowed thousands of better articles than ever appeared in its columns.

The University of Missouri has adopted simplified spelling. Slowly but surely common sense wins its way even in spelling.

In his annual report to the War Department Gen. E. M. Weaver, Chief of the Coast Artillery, points out the lack of artillerymen to man the works planned by the Endicott board twenty-seven years ago, nearly all of which are nearing completion.

SKIN OINTMENT

WHAT DO I GET OUT OF IT?

By JULIAN WETZEL.

With reference to any body of men organized for moral, social or business advancement, the most cowardly question any member can possibly propound, and the one which harasses and disgusts the real workers—the real self-sacrificers—is, "What do I get out of it?" How often have you heard it from puny-minded, weak-kneed brethren in lodges, societies and business bodies? The whine of these men is a thorn in the side of public spirit. They are the class that expect to drop a dime in the slot and take out a dollar. They are the men who are actually disappointed if they fail to draw more sick benefits from their lodge or insurance company than they pay in dues or premiums. They are one real and menacing detriment to civilization itself.

Did you ever stop to think that all progress of the human race in achievement and development is exactly measured by the surplus put into the effort to go forward? Suppose all people in all ages had put forth just enough energy to subsist—that they had taken out just as much as they had contributed to the general welfare. Suppose every inhabitant to have stopped at the beginning of every suggested improvement, scratched his barbaric head, squinted one eye knowingly and inquired, "What do I get out of it?" It's difficult to conceive or conjecture what the result would be today, but the chances are the human family would be dwelling in caves clad in skins and fighting over the bones of animals slain with stone axes, or, perhaps, even hanging by their respective tails banyan trees in the jungles of Africa.

Organization of one kind or another is responsible for nearly everything we enjoy except raw material resources, which God gave us, along with the earth. Organized men "resolve" and organized armies demand and force. Our whole political and social economy is dependent upon organization. All great reforms—religious, political and patriotic—have been launched and fought for by men and women into whose great minds the dwarf like, biased selfish question, "What do I get out of it?" never for one moment entered. Can you imagine the Apostle Paul asking, "What do I get out of them?" before writing his great epistles? Is it possible for you to think of Martin Luther asking it? Where would our civilization be today if Burns had demanded money before writing "To Mary in Heaven," or if Benjamin Franklin had demanded a check before presenting the cause of the colonies to the French Court, or if Washington had hesitated to cross the Delaware because there was no money in it for him, or if Whittier, Holmes, Bryant, Lowell and Longfellow had refused to write, or Rooks, Phillips, Channing, Emerson and Beecher had declined to preach, or Edison, Morse, Whitney, and Howe ceased to invent, or Grant and Sherman had turned back or the majestic Lincoln halted—because the pay was uncertain and the result in doubt?

In the public life of today we cannot, we must not ask this silly question. Every American citizen owes it to himself, his country and her citizens to ask the question, "What can I put in—what can I do to help?" Just now I can think of but two who asked this question and received the answer—Judas Iscariot, who betrayed the Saviour for thirty pieces of silver, and hanged himself in remorse, and Benedict Arnold, who sought to deliver West Point into the hands of the British and received his reward—a command in the King's army—and disgrace and ostracism to the end of his miserable life.

They asked, "What do I get out of it?" In bringing this thought so forcibly to the attention of thinking men, I have no certain individual in mind whom I wish to chastise. I am somewhat acquainted and pleasantly associated with a number of the members of the Industrial Club and those whom I know could never ask a question like this. They are men who have put in more than they can ever hope to take out—men whose aim in business life is to better business and living conditions in our city; not simply to feather their own nests and build up a big and successful but to form a successful and beneficial organization for every member. I am throwing no bouquets. I have no axe to grind but I am a member of several organizations of a similar nature in the work of which I have spent some of the best years of my life. I therefore know what laggards and malcontents mean. I have had this question, "What do I get out of it?" sink into my heart like a blade of steel after years of effort on my own part and on the part of other men to enlist in a general movement for our mutual betterment.

Let us stand firmly, shoulder to shoulder. Put in. Don't take out. Let us make the Industrial Club stand for something real and tangible. Should Mr. Wetzel visit Mt. Vernon do you think he would have sufficient grounds to make such an application to any of our citizens? We can not say no, but we certainly hope not.

STOP SMUGGLING

275,000 ROUNDS OF AMMUNITION SEIZED AND THREE MEN WERE ARRESTED.

Edict From Washington Says Illicit Trade in Arms to Latin America Must Cease.

Western Newspaper Union News Service. New York.—Government agents, it was learned, have been in the city conducting a still, and what is considered certain to be a profitable, hunt for those guilty of smuggling illicit arms into Central and South American countries.

"The shipping of contraband arms must cease," is the edict from Washington.

Working on clues supplied by War Department agents in Central and South America, the government agents are close upon the trail of smugglers. It was said that at least $1,000,000 worth of ammunition, guns and rifles are smuggled out of this port each year. Other arrests are to follow raids made in Brooklyn when 275,000 rounds of ammunition were seized and three men arrested. The government officers are gunning for bigger game than these men, although it is alleged that they have grown wealthy through the exportation of arms to aspiring revolutionists in the tropics.

FIRST ESTIMATE OF FLOOD.

Galveston, Texas.—For the first time it became possible to estimate the toll of life and property taken by the great floods of the Brazos and Colorado rivers and their tributaries in their sweep across this state. Forty thousand square miles of territory have been laid waste. Two hundred and thirty persons have been killed. One hundred million dollars in property is lost. Twenty-five cities, towns and villages have contributed to the death roll.

DUBLIN STRIKE ENDS.

Dublin.—All the transport and dock workers in Dublin have agreed to resume work, according to a statement issued by the companies. This port, which has been practically closed since the end of August, will be reopened when the regular sailings across the Irish Channel will be started.

STEAMER IS ASHORE.

Wilmington, N. C.—A steamer, as yet unidentified here, was reported to be ashore on Frying Pan shoals, or the North Carolina coast. The United States revenue cutter Seminole proceeded from this port under full steam to her assistance.

PRESIDENT OFFERS FIRST AID. Washington.—President Wilson was walking in Rock Creek park late when he noticed a riderless horse galloping by. N., his physician, who immediately went to the little horse woman's assistance.

It's about as difficult to describe these new clothes as to write about the prettiest girl at a Leap Year Party. You've got to see her with your own eyes. Maybe you'll like her—if you don't there are others. So, if one suit doesn't please you, we've another. It's a question of taste. Prices? That lies with you. PERSONAL

Prof. J. S. Irvine was in Livingston Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Robins of Brodhead, is here, visiting parents.

Roy and Charles Martin, of Crab Orchard, were here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Meadows spent a part of the week in Louisville.

Mrs. W. J. Sparks came out from Louisville, Friday, last, to spend the afternoon.

Mrs. S. Riddle visited relatives and friends in the Quail section, first of last week.

Mr. D. R. Brock spent Saturday until Monday with his daughter, Mrs. F. S. Albright.

Mrs. James Rickels, who has been very sick for the past two weeks is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Brack Durham of Burr, were here Sunday, visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Durham.

Mrs. C. C. Williams who is in Louisville under treatment of a specialist, is reported much improved.

Miss Sallie B. Riddle, of Nicholasville, was the guest of Misses Mattie and Fannie Riddle last week at Cove.

Roy Mullins, the efficient Supt. of the Winchester Granite Brick Co. at Dudley, was in town on business, during the week.

Drs. W. T. Amyx and W. H.
Joyner were up from Livingston, yesterday attending the meeting of the Rockcastle County Medical Society.

Mrs. Nannie Hunt, widow of the late Frank Hunt, of the Marburg section died, Tuesday morning, pneumonia. She leaves several grown children.

Messrs S. F. Bowman and A.
G. Bartlett report a most delightful and successful hunt in Jackson last week. They brought back birds by the scores and better still eight nice pheasants.

LOCAL

The sick of the community are reported better.

Miss Marguerite Lovell is reported better this week.

The Rockcastle County Medical Society met here yesterday.

One of the Lovell boys of near Pine Hill, is reported to have a very severe case of small pox, which he contracted at Richmond.

After December 31st parcel post weight limit will be raised to 50lbs between points within 150 miles.
Packages of this weight will be carried for 54 cents. After March 15th books will also be included in parcel post classification.

In 1750, Dr. Walker, a prominent Virginian, in company with several others made a visit to Kentucky, entering by way of Powell's valley in Tennessee, and a gap in Laurel Mountains. They found a river flowing southwest on the other side. The doctor gave the name, Cumberland, to the mountain and river, which they yet bear, in honor of the English "Bloody Duke of Cumberland."

The cities, or at least their most enterprising commercial concerns have "caught on," as others will in due time, but the rural districts are still studying the proposition.
A few of the farmers have worked it out satisfactorily to themselves and others will do so later on. For the present the chief duty of the newspapers is to impress upon their rural readers that the parcel post was established for everybody's benefit and not simply for the conveniences of the city merchants.

New line of Neckware for Xmas at Fish's.

Don't presume upon the other fellows ignorance too much.

Telephone rates will be slightly advanced in Rockcastle within next two months.

VICTOR SAFES. None better made. See James Maret, representing Victor Safe & Lock Co.

Mr. Carlo Helton, of the Wildie section, died Tuesday. Mr. Halton came to this county from Harlan, and located some four or five years ago.

We have heard nothing said about a Xmas tree, any where in town. Christmas means too much to the little folks, not to have them.

The assurance of an electric light plant has already opened the way for negotiations for an up-to-date planing mill and a flour mill, both of which we will have before many months besides other things that are sure to come.

The residence of Jack Adams one mile south of town, was destroyed by fire at an early hour Wednesday morning. The building was occupied by A. W. Adams who lost all of his household goods and had no insurance. The building was insured.

Just look over the advertising columns of the Signal, and you will tell part of the story why Mt. Vernon increased 121 per cent from 1900 to 1910 and in the last three years there have been over 200 people added to our number.
No matter where you go you will find some one who knows Mt.
Vernon and has something good to say about the town. Push and boosting is what it does.

TIMBER LANDS WANTED.

I want to buy a tract of from two thousand to ten thousand acres of timber land in fee, for immediate operation. If you have any land to sell write me fully giving number of acres, stating whether in solid tract or not, kind and quantity of timber per acre, on what waters, if any, distance from railroad and lowest price per acre. Send plat or blue print if you have on. On receipt of this information if I am interested I will immediately send some one to look at the land.

JAMES S. LAKIN,
403 Capitol St., Charleston, W. Va.

The first house erected in Kentucky took place in 1750, on Cumberland river six miles below Barbourville. Dr. Walker and companions from Virginia did the work but abandoned it a short time afterward on account of Indians.
In their writings the party mentions having seen a hundred buffalo's in one gang near the building.
The Walkers of Garrard and Lincoln county, are descendants of the men who built the first house in this state. Boone Way will reach this site as well as the first brick house erected in Kentucky which is yet in a good state of preservation and in use at Crab Orchard.

The stock holders of the Mt.
Vernon Light Water & Ice Co., met Monday evening, signed and acknowledged the article of incorporation and completed the few minor details of organization.
After the stockholders meeting, the directors met and named a committee to investigate a location and get options on several different locations, all of which will be considered by the committee which will meet at the Peoples Bank building tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock. Some folks are asking, when will the work start of installing the plant? Just as soon as a lot is secured and satisfactory prices had on the equipment necessary.

SPLENDID SHOWING.—We are in receipt of a Quarterly statement of the State Bank & Trust Co., of Stanford, of which, Mr. M. B.
Salin is Cashier. The statement shows that institution to be in a most flourishing condition. The assets are more than $181,000, with loans of over $110,000 and deposits of more than $120,000.
When Mr. Salin left Mt. Vernon, less than three years ago and went to Stanford to take charge of that bank, the institution was in anything but a flourishing condition with resources of less than $100,000. Through the efforts and personality of Mr. Salin this institution has been raised to the high standard which it now occupies in the business world.

How to Detect the Alum Baking Powder

"Which are the alum baking powders; how can I avoid them unless they are named?" asks a housekeeper.

Here is one way: take the can of a low-priced powder in your hand and read the ingredient clause upon the back label. The law requires that if the powder contains alum that fact must be there stated. If you find one of the ingredients named alum, or sulphate of aluminum, you have found an alum baking powder.

There is another and a better way. You don't have to know the names of the alum powders. Use Royal Baking Powder only; that assures you a cream of tartar powder, and the purest and most healthful baking powder beyond question.

Washington, D. C. 12-5-13.

Mr. James Maret,
Mt. Vernon, Ky.

My dear Sir and Friend:

I am in receipt of your you.

Very truly your friend,

OLLIE M. JAMES.

I will offer at 90 cents, per bushel, 1st, 1914; also a lot of rough feed.

combined saddle and harness

W. M. BULLOCK,

"NINE millions will be needed for Ohio River according to report of Chief Engineer of Army to Secretary Garrison."

One million dollars spent on Boone Way from Cumberland Gap to Crab Orchard would benefit more people than would the nine million for the Ohio river. Rivers and harbors have already swallowed millions upon millions. It is high time that something be done for roads.

Stanford, Ky. 12-5-13.

I am,

SCHOOL NOTES.

Next week the mid-year examinations will be held at the Graded School.

The first and second boys' teams and the first girls' team, went to Pine Hill last Saturday to play basket ball. All three games resulted in favor of the Graded School teams, with scores of 15 to 12, 23 to 1 and 10 to 7, respectively.

On Friday night, Dec. 12th, the Graded School will offer a very humorous program. It will consist of a series of short vaudeville sketches, the characters all being Hebrew and Ethiopian. The whole program has been drawn up with an idea to clean, whole some fun. The prices of admission will be 10 and 15 cents. The proceeds will go to the benefit of the school.

POPULATION AS AFFECTED BY ROADS

As a general rule a county that has good roads is a prosperous county, increasing in wealth and population. The United States Office of Public Roads recently presented a comparative figures illustrating the influence of improved roads on county progress.

In twenty-five counties, taken at random in twelve States, the number of inhabitants from 1890 decreased 77,823, and average decrease of more than 3,000 for each county. The road improvement in these counties was only 15 to per cent.

In the same States twenty-five other counties where the road improvement was 40 per cent, during the same period were chosen for comparison. It was found that these had increased in population 778,383, an average of nearly 22,000 in each county.

The figures show that the counties which have built good roads have gained heavily in population while those which have neglected their highways have lost. Possibly there were other influences which contributed to the gain or loss of population, but it seems entirely reasonable to believe that the roads were the chief factor, especially as the Office of Public Roads makes the claim that in other respects the two groups of counties were about equally matched.

It is not surprising that a county which has no good roads should lose population. Progressive farmers are more than likely to move away from such counties, and progressive farmers from elsewhere are not likely to take their places. Homeseekers want the advantages of good roads and investors cannot be interested in land that is miles away from an improved thoroughfare.

Land values increase where there is proper highway maintenance.
They either decline or stand still in localities where road improvement is ignored. No county can expect continued prosperity if it neglects its roads.—Courier Journal.

CROUP AND COUGH REMEDY

Croup is a terrible disease, it attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery.
Lewis Chamberlain, of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we proved a what certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs, and colds." So can you. 50c. and John L. Gaunt, a reclusive Baptist minister, 63 years old, was found murdered Sunday in a branch fifty feet from the door of his home in Fisherville. The house had been ransacked and it is believed robbers committed the crime when he returned home and surprised them. He had the reputation of collecting gold coins, which many believed were hidden in the house. A negro has been arrested in connection with the case.

President Wilson's views on antitrust legislation are to be sought this week, it is stated, by Congressional leaders upon whom will fall the task of mapping out the anti-trust programme. The feeling is growing, according to reports, that the acts of the present Congress regarding trusts should effect only the more obviously needed reforms.

Representative A. B. Rouse, of Kentucky, says the House Postoffice Committee is not considering the increase of interest on individual postal savings deposits; as reported, but contemplates exacting a larger rate of interest from the banks for the use of such deposits.

Here are several reasons why I trade at C. C. Davis' Drug Store:

- BECAUSE—Things we get at Char. C. Davis' Store are all right.
- BECAUSE—Things that go wrong bought at "Chink's" place will be made right.

—the highest ideals in plated ware—are assured in spoons, forks, and fancy serving pieces bearing the renowned trade mark 1847 ROGERS BROS.

There are various makes of silver-plated tableware which are claimed to be "just as good," but, like all imitations, they lack the beauty and wearing quality identified with the original and genuine 1847 ROGERS BROS. ware, popularly known as "Silver Plate that Wears."

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill."

I wish every suffering woman would give
